January 2019

2019 Has Arrived!

What is your opinion on, “New Year’s Resolutions?” Have you ever set a goal for a new year and kept it? I can recall many goals made when January rolled in. Gym membership, keeping a clean car, running, healthy eating habits, and other goals came and departed like a revolving door. Some goals lasted longer than others in my life. What about you?

Dave Snyder
Senior Pastor

Have you ever considered reading the entire Bible? Yes, from Genesis to Revelation. It may sound like a lofty idea, but it can be done! In 2019, I want you to join me as we take a tour through the redemption story. If you haven’t yet, please stop by the welcome desk and pick up a Bible reading plan. They are also available electronically at goo.gl/DVJCFa.

Think baby steps. Each morning, I want to challenge you to carve out at least fifteen minutes for the Lord. Use the reading plan to place your eyes into His truth. Pray for His Spirit to guide you through the day. Model Jesus in your words and actions. As a church, we have a great opportunity to grow together in our faith. I want our community to see the joy and love of Jesus in us! I believe having a greater foundation in God’s Word will sharpen our trust and dependency of our Father in heaven.

2019 has come upon us. Please join me in reading God’s Word. Feel free to email me and let me know what you have learned. I’m excited to spend 2019 with you.

I love being your pastor.

Happy New Year!

Blessings,

Dave
